VACATION IN

WASATCH COUNTY.....

Wasatch County . . . America's Switzerland, might also be called water country. Here exists some of the States prime agricultural ground competing for survival as this lush recreational area entices more and more families to build cabins for year-round recreational purposes. Beautiful Heber Valley is but minutes from skiing, fishing, boating, sailplaning, water skiing, and is located in the heart of prime hunting country. Scenic Drives are plentiful, taking you into Mahogany, Juniper, Oak, Quaking Aspen, Pines and Meadows, plush with sparkling mountain springs and streams. Above, stream or lake fishing is always productive. The upper Provo yielded this nice limit. Deer Creek Reservoir offers excellent fishing and boating. Strawberry, already a popular reservoir, will increase in size as the Central Utah Project goes into action, early in 1971. This body of water will be three times its present size and fishing, water sports and facilities will be even more active. Explore Wasatch County. Many small lakes and reservoirs and streams offer you camping, solitude and peaceful living. Modern facilities in the towns of Wasatch County will add to your enjoyment.

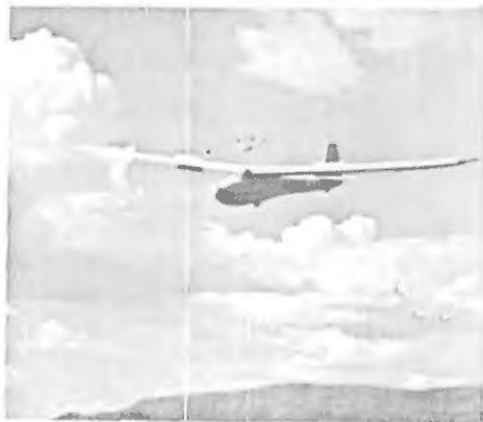

WASATCH MOUNTAIN STATE PARK

22,000 acres of unspoiled mountain splendor to hearten the picnicker, hiker, horseback rider, fisherman, sightseer or camper. A new 18 hole golf course over 7,000 yards long with its wide fairways, three streams, five lakes and numerous roughs and water hazards offering a challenge to duffers and pros. Over 35,000 rounds of golf were played during the first full season of operations.

Camping and picnicking in three separate campgrounds. 110 units with water, sewer connections, electricity, tables, grills, trash collection, modern rest rooms and showers.

Scenic roads to all points of interest and adjacent recreational areas.

Four Seasons Wonderland of America

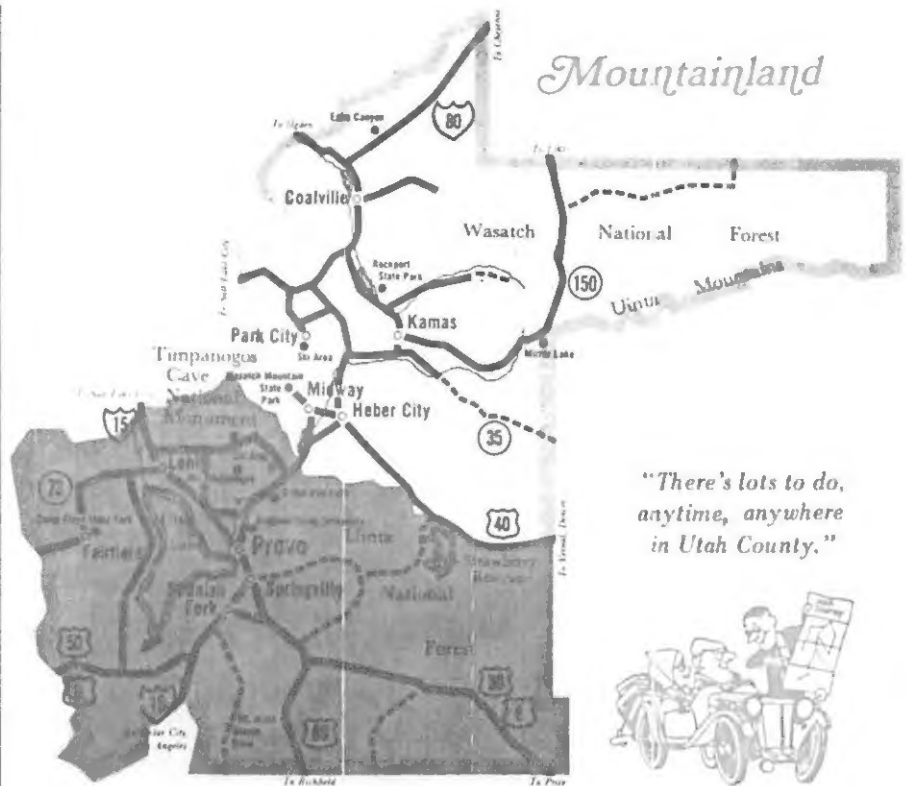

Outstanding scenery, proximity to Utah's major population centers, climatic relief resulting from abrupt, rugged terrain . . . sparkling rivers and streams combine in Utah County to spell recreation enjoyment unlimited.

23 developed camp and picnic grounds and trails leading to commanding vistas along the shoulders and crests of the reclining giant of Mt. Timpanogos provide camping and hiking unexcelled in the West.

Nearby Timpanogos Cave National Monument, lies a few miles above the valley in American Fork Canyon. Here, within the base of Mt. Timpanogos, are caverns of weird beauty filled with nature's aged sculpturing—stalactites and stalagmites.

A popular stream for hook-and-line enthusiasts, the Provo River is noted for its fine catches of large German Brown trout and pan-sized and larger Rainbows. Catfishing is a popular summertime sport on Utah Lake, and during the winter months when the lake is frozen, many White Bass are taken through the ice.

Early spring brings the Walleye run on the lower Provo River, which is increasing in popularity with each passing year. During each season of the year, sportsmen agree that Utah Valley is a fishermen's paradise.

TIMPANOGOS SKI RESORT

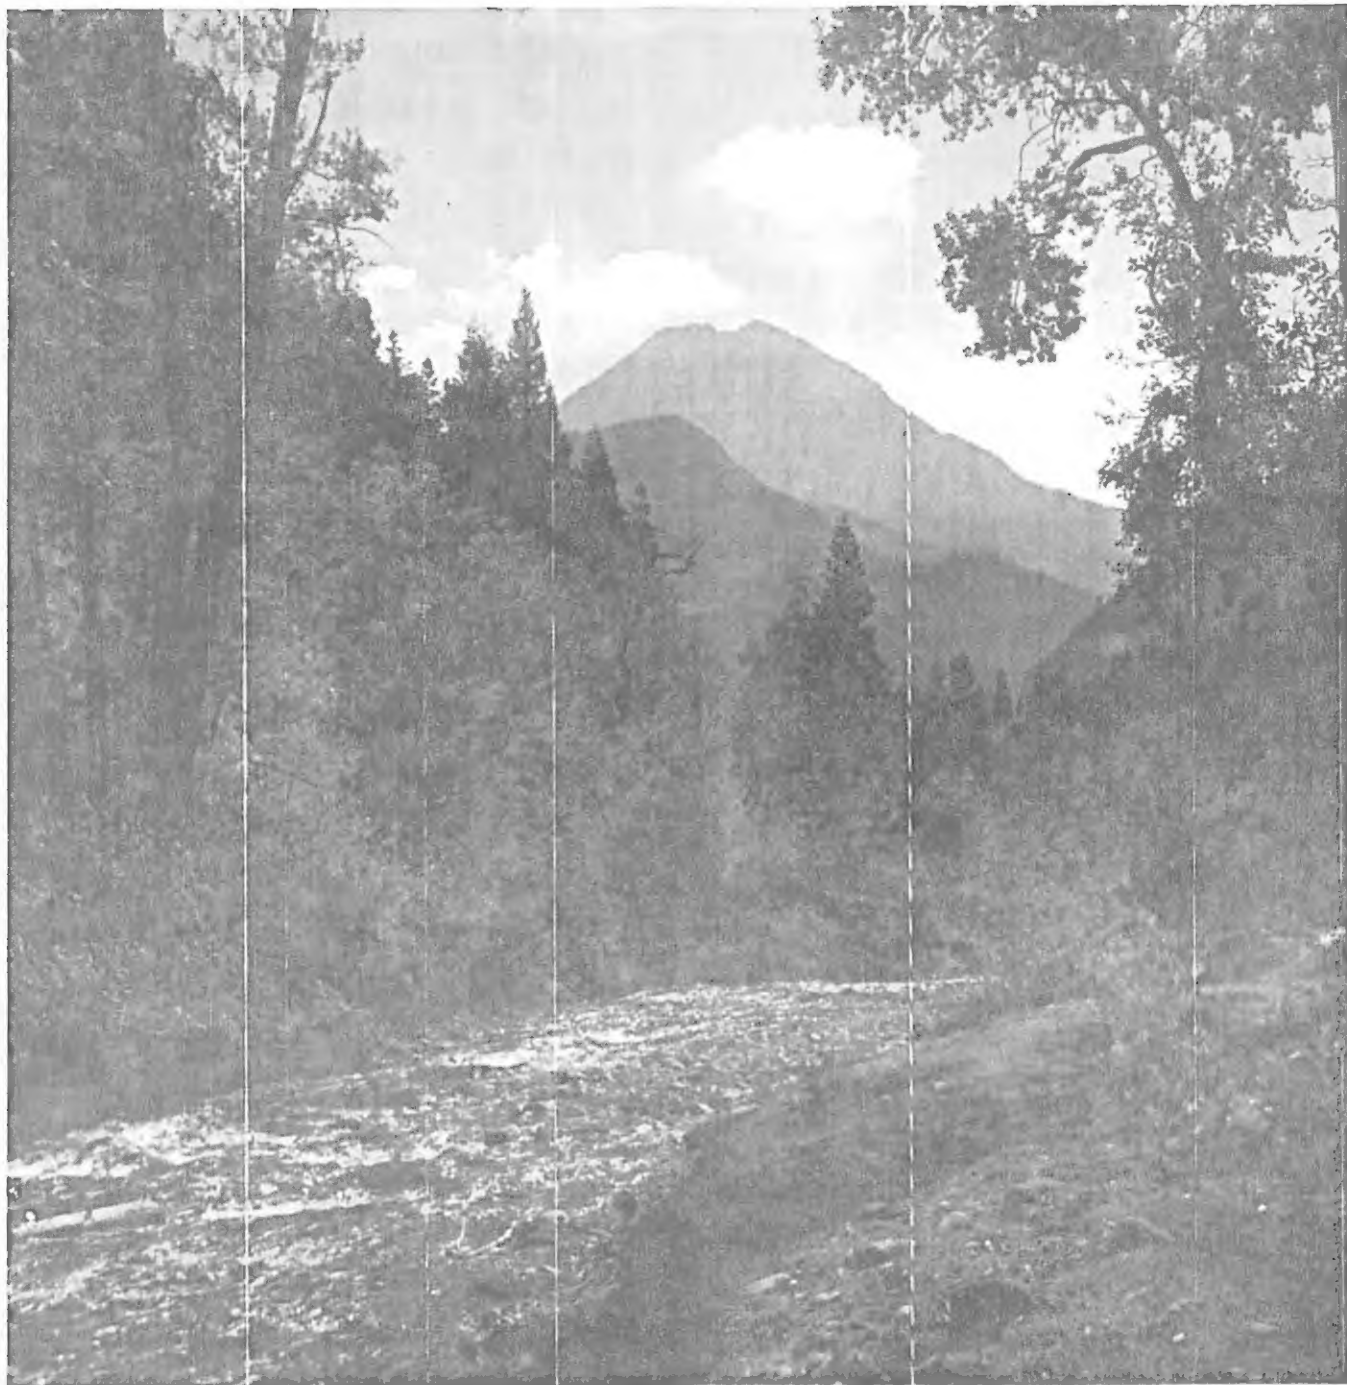

Year 'Round pleasure is yours in scenic Utah County. Summertime... Wintertime... Anytime is Fun! If you haven't experienced the FOUR SEASONS in Utah County, explore them this year...the wonderland of contrasts provides a paradise on earth for visitors and residents alike.

Discover Unbelievable Utah county

... many other people have. Some came to stay and others return time and time again to vacation in the valley that was called by early explorers "The most pleasant, beautiful and fertile in all New Spain."

The abundance of water, the richness of the soil, and the prevalence of wild game gave Mormon pioneer settlers the security they needed to begin building a mountain empire far from the civilization of the eastern and western seaboard. Utah Valley today is indeed the garden spot of the state and the Intermountain West.
